RATIONALE

Discrimination is a form of abuse towards another person or group of people. God calls us to honour all men and women because all have been created in His image. Biblical principles clearly condemns discriminatory behaviour.

This policy outlines the schools guidelines for dealing with discrimination. Discriminatory actions, including abuse towards any other person, whether physical or verbal, is sinful. We are encouraged in the Bible to “show proper respect to everyone” (1Peter 2:17) and not let “obscenity, foolish talk or coarse joking” form part of our speech (Ephesians 5:4). These commands and also themes from the book of James regarding warnings against showing favouritism and the encouragement to be impartial (James 3:17) are important considerations. Isaiah 42 tells us that God is a God of justice and rather than perpetuating discrimination, poverty or oppression, we should work to see Gods plan to ‘set the captives free’ and ‘release from prison’ those who are oppressed, regardless of their circumstances, ethnic or religious background.

This policy is part of student and staff welfare and relates to the mental, emotional and spiritual well being of people. It is noted that some activities will be subject to a range of policy areas and that there may be overlap with other welfare policies at the school.

Dubbo Christian School ensures that its practices, policies and procedures are free from direct or indirect discrimination on all relevant legislative grounds as defined by, but not limited to, the following Commonwealth and State legislation:

- NSW Anti-Discrimination Act (1975)
- Racial Discrimination Act (1975)
- Sex Discrimination Act (1984)
- Disability Discrimination Act (1992)
- Disability Discrimination and other Human Rights Legislation Amendment Act (2009)
- NSW Fair Work Act (2009)

1. DEFINITIONS

1.1 The definitions contained in this policy are framed with reference to specific legislation and concern unlawful discrimination. Not all unacceptable behaviour may be considered “discriminatory”, but will still be proscribed by other school policies such as those covering work performance, staff or student misconduct or the principles enshrined in the Code of Conduct.
1.1.1 Disability has the same meaning as the definition of “disability” in s 5 of the Disability Discrimination Act (1992) (DDA.)

1.1.2 Discrimination is unfair or inequitable treatment on the basis of the characteristics and attributes listed in part 23.8.

1.1.3 Harassment is behaviour, comments or images that are unwelcome, offensive or intimidating which makes the victim of that conduct upset, unhappy or scared, and that, in the circumstances, a reasonable person should have expected would be offensive or intimidating. The DCS Anti-Harassment Policy should be read with this policy.

1.1.4 Victimisation is any unfavourable treatment of a person as a consequence of their involvement (or proposed involvement) in a grievance under the school’s grievance procedures. Unfavourable treatment may include such things as adverse changes to their work or study environment, denial of access to resources, work opportunities or training, or ostracism. The DCS Anti-Harassment Policy should be read with this policy.

1.1.5 Vilification is the public incitement of hatred, serious contempt or severe ridicule of a person on the basis of the race, ethnic origin or religion of that person. Vilification does not include, for example, legitimate academic debate about issues that might include discussions of race.

1.1.6 Direct Discrimination is treating someone in an unfair or less favourable way because of one or more characteristics or attributes.

1.1.7 Indirect Discrimination is a rule or requirement that is the same for everyone but has the effect of disadvantaging individuals and groups sharing the same characteristics or attributes.

1.1.8 Systemic (or Institutional) Discrimination is covert or hidden discrimination against particular groups (often unconscious) built into the seemingly neutral practices and policies of an institution or organisation.

1.1.9 Racial Discrimination is behaviour which disadvantages people because of their race, colour, national or ethnic origin, or disadvantages any relative or associate of these people.

1.1.10 Sex Discrimination is behaviour which disadvantages people because of their gender (refer to section Sexual Discrimination).
